TESTIMONIALS

Metropolitan and Skills Artisans Development Institute (MASDI) is a support agency for 5 faith-based non-profit skills centers. The Centers in our network offer skills programmers to unemployed youth who are not in employment education or training in programmers like Baking, Catering, Welding, Bricklaying, Electrical, End User Computing.

We were introduced to SANWDSC by the Service QCTO when we approached them for advice on accreditation for Electrical Engineering for Programmers for 3 of our network centers. We are so grateful for the extent to which SANWDSC has guided and supported the MASDI as well as all 3 of our network centre.

“SANWDSC, with their extent of knowledge in the Training Industry, has been an unbelievable source of support to us with regards the accreditation process and ongoing challenges – note all 3 centers are accredited for the two skills programmers. Mercy Majaya our electrical subject matter has been appointed as a Moderator for the Skills Programmers offered at all three centers.” – Lorraine Mashishi Programme and Training Project Manager.
